

A movie poster for the film "Tanna". It features a man and a woman in traditional attire standing on a dark, rocky shore. The man is on the left, seen from the back, holding a long spear. The woman is on the right, seen from the side, looking back over her shoulder at the man. The background is a dark, smoky sky filled with glowing orange and red embers, suggesting a volcanic eruption. The title "Tanna" is written in a large, white, cursive font across the middle of the image.
